Have the police done something wrong?

If you think they have, you can talk to us.

We are independent

We are not part of the police.

How can we help you?

We can look into your concern.

You may also hear us use the words 'misconduct' or 'complaint'.

What is a 'concern'?

It could be police:

- doing something they weren't allow to do
- causing an injury to you or someone else
- making false statements
- lying in court
- committing a crime
- giving or taking bribes
- falsely imprisoning you or someone else

You do not have to say who you are

If you do tell us your name, you can ask us not to tell other people.

What we will do

We will look into your concern.
